Senior Education

Important Information

Senior Citizens
Texas residents age 65 and over may be exempt from payment of all tuition for up to six hours per semester and/or from payment of tuition if auditing undergraduate or Community & Industry Education courses. Audit registration begins three business days before the start of a Community & Industry Education class and must be requested in person. Classes may be audited only on a space-available basis.

Community & Industry Education courses require department approval. Classes in the Senior Education Program are not eligible.

Registration is available at the Registrar's office or online.

The information supplied in this schedule is based upon conditions at the time of printing and is subject to change without notice. Community & Industry Education reserves the right to cancel any course section for which there is an inadequate number of enrollees.
Eligibility
Who may take Senior Education classes? There are no educational requirements to enroll. All persons 55 years of age and older prior to the starting date of the classes are eligible. This semester, participants must be 55 prior to January 28, 2019.

Certificate
Classes have no tests, and no grades are given. Tarrant County College does not grant credit for Senior Education classes. Students may request a certificate of participation.

Fee
One $20 registration fee per semester allows a student to enroll in as many Senior Education classes as he/she chooses. A student may enroll for classes on one or all campuses for one fee. There is a $10 lab fee for all hands-on computer classes.

Change of Schedule
A change in schedule (add or drop classes) after enrollment must be requested by telephone. Please call the Office of Community & Industry Education on the campus where the class(es) is/are scheduled. A change can be made on a space-available basis only. No changes can be made after the second class period.

Parking
All persons who attend classes on Trinity River Campus must secure a campus parking permit. This permit will be issued upon registration.

Special Activities
A special activity will be held on some campuses to celebrate the end of the semester. Students are invited to attend the event on their home campus.

Registration
See page 34 for registration information.

Important Notes

The Fort Worth Symphony and Van Cliburn organizations are unable to guarantee seats for us this semester. They cannot forecast ticket sales for concerts in the Bass Performance Hall. We have been informed that they desire to accommodate us whenever possible. Classes will be listed as To Be Announced (TBA) for dates, days and times. A calling committee will let students know the required information as they receive it.

Policy

Several cultural entities in Fort Worth have been exceedingly generous in providing tickets at little or no cost to our program. Our dedicated volunteer callers have worked many hours to alert enrollees of upcoming dates. Unfortunately we have, in all instances, been plagued with several “no-shows,” which means tickets are wasted, and others are deprived of the pleasure of viewing the performance.

The new policy will be:

1. A list will be made of enrollees who plan to attend the event.
2. This list will be checked off at the time the tickets are issued.
3. A “no-show” will be eliminated from the list for future performances.
4. If for any reason a student finds it impossible to attend, he or she must advise the caller at least 48 hours prior to the performance so that a substitute may be called.

Special Events

Many students want to participate in these special events. There may be a possible surcharge on some events.

Open to Senior Education members on a space-available basis. Enrollees will be called on a rotation basis.

TCC uses email to communicate many important messages about student services and deadlines. Student communications will be through the student’s assigned Gmail email address.

Use of Student Number

A student number is required to identify students’ permanent records. The automated student information system assigns to every student a generated student ID number, also called the Colleague ID. Your student ID is used for all internal printed materials and provides additional protection of students’ privacy. Students are urged to become familiar with their student ID and to use it when communicating with College offices. Students are requested to provide their Social Security Number to the College for maintenance of their student records. This allows the College to meet federal and state reporting requirements, enables communication with financial aid providers and service agencies, and substantially eases transfer of information between TCC and other colleges and universities. Students who have not provided their Social Security Number risk loss of services and benefits and may encounter delays when transferring from or to other institutions. The College makes every effort to protect students’ Social Security Numbers from disclosure. Questions about College use of the Social Security Number should be directed to the director of admissions and records.
