Financial aid eligibility for 2022-2023 is based on the 2020 income as reported on the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA). Occasionally, you or your parents may have experienced a significant change in income or benefits. This form allows you an opportunity to request a review of that a re-evaluation of the data used to complete the 2022-2023 FAFSA.

Circumstances that can be reviewed under a change of income or benefits (Check all that Apply)

- Loss or termination of a job
- Reduced working hours, salary, or hourly wages
- Loss of unemployment compensation
- Loss or reduction of child support
- Loss or reduction of Social Security benefits

Circumstances that are not considered for a loss or reduction of income/benefits

- Voluntary loss of job
- Loss of overtime pay
- Increased expenses (See EFC Adjustments Request)
- A student whose EFC is zero
